

House Resolution No. 1851

Whereas, Robert Henggeler of Maryville, Missouri, commemorated his Sixty-fifth Birthday with a special celebration on April 5, 2003, at the Hangar Movie Theater; and

Whereas, on April 5, 1938, God brought a special gift to Xavier and Evelyn Henggeler with the birth of an adorable infant by the name of Robert, who would put a twinkle in their eyes and fill their hearts with love and joy; and

Whereas, Robert Henggeler was born the same year that Orson Welles' radio broadcast of War of the Worlds caused panic in the United States, Walt Disney's feature-length cartoon Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs was shown, and Chester Carlson invented xerography, the first electrostatic dry-copying process; and

Whereas, while celebrating his birthday, Robert Henggeler had the opportunity to reminisce about some of the significant events in his life such as his marriage to Shirley Henggeler and the arrival of their offspring; and

Whereas, God has blessed Robert Henggeler with the love and affection of a wonderful family whose members include his wife, Shirley Henggeler; three daughters, Debbie Powers, Tammy Schotzberg, and Dee Hurley; and six grandchildren; and

Whereas, a member of the Elks Lodge, Robert Henggeler has provided a comfortable home and secure future for his loved ones through his successful endeavors at New England Business Services in Maryville, where he has distinguished himself by being named the Older Worker of the Year; and

Whereas, Robert Henggeler is extremely grateful for the countless blessings he has received throughout the course of his sixty-five-year sojourn on this most precious earth:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending congratulations and birthday greetings to Robert Henggeler at this milestone and in wishing him peace and contentment as he begins to enjoy his golden years; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Robert Henggeler.
